The Southern Documentary Convening is a three-day conference for first-time, emerging and experienced documentary makers taking place annually in Durham, NC. Attendees will benefit from workshops, panel discussions, screenings and networking opportunities with industry professionals. The event aims to provide both practical skills and artistic growth through personal connections and relevant discussions.
Sponsorship Opportunities

*All contributions to the Southern Documentary Fund are tax-deductible. A tax donation letter will be provided to you for your records.

Associate Producer $500+
- Your name or logo displayed on website and promotional materials
- Social media shoutout
- One pass to the Convening, or sponsor a maker

Producer $1,000+
- Your name or logo displayed on website and promotional materials
- Two social media shoutouts
- Two passes to the Convening, or sponsor two makers
- Option to present at a Convening panel or social mixer

Executive Producer $5,000+
Your sponsorship helps bring in talent, book special events, print promotional materials, and more.
- Your name or logo prominently displayed on website and promotional materials
- Included on all Convening social media posts
- Four passes to the Convening, or sponsor four makers
- On-site signage throughout the Convening

Customize Your Sponsorship - limited availability

Lanyards (1 available) - $500: Your logo on customized lanyards for attendees

Swag Bags (1 available) - $1,000: Your logo on customized totes for attendees

Special Presentation or Screening (3 available) - $5,000: With your support, we can host a free screening of a Southern documentary during the Convening, open to both attendees and the general public. As a sponsor, you will have the opportunity to speak before the screening and your logo will be prominently displayed throughout the event. This sponsorship level also includes all the benefits of the Executive Producer level.

For questions and inquiries please contact giving@southerndocumentaryfund.org